

EYES OF A STRANGER

Close your eyes and trust me
don't say a word.
I'll be your commander
you'll be my nerd.
Boy you have to love me
for one more night.

Come a little closer
come on, don't be shy.
You'll never know the sweet taste of my lips
if you won't try.

Let me show you something that you have never seen
I don't want to fool you
I just confuse your sins.
I wanna feel your body
close to mine.

Later in this evening
I promise, I'm all yours.
Drink this glass of poison
you'll like it, I am sure.

He sees her moving to the music in her head
she's got eyes of a stranger.
Her moves are slow, he doesn't know how to behave
cause she's got eyes of a stranger.
She put a spell on him, he knows there's something wrong
with these eyes of a stranger.
He can't control, he tries to touch, there's nothing there but the eyes of a stranger.

She could be an angel
an angel in disguise.
Blinded by her beauty
feels like paradise.
She is all he desires,
maybe even more.

She is so confusing
she looks like she could kill
It turns into obsession
and he's taking one more pill.
