

LIE

I think about all the years that we've had and I cry
Was it my fault and was my love in vain?
I had no choice, it was you who decided how,
How this story goes, how it works, how it ends.
The script was you.

Your trembling lips while you're talking to me
You are thinking of someone, I know it's not me
I wanna know what you did, I wanna know where you've been,
I wanna know if you planned to tell me bout your...

Lies, your lies
I could see it in your eyes
I tried to figure out why you told me
Lies, you lied
I don't need no more words
Cause words even hurt much more.

I sit alone in the dark, fallin' deeper into
Old memories that hurt, cause together we were strong.
There's still the smell of cold smoke in my room, in my hair
In my everywhere.

Lies, your lies
I could see it in your eyes
I tried to figure out why you told me
Lies, you lied
I don't need no more words
Cause words even hurt much more.
