

LONESOME BIRDS

Shy and darkbrown eyes staring at the wall.
A picture, all in white,
has no frame at all (has no frame at all).

But there is a cloud covering the light.
And some restless birds
start to sing a song – (then they're gone).

Goodbye
I try not to cry when you say
Goodbye
why don't you try to stay?

Yes I want to be once more your sweet melody.
Maybe it wouldn't change a thing to be with you another day
- you're gone anyway.

Goodbye
I try not to cry when you say
Goodbye
why don't you try (to stay)?
